DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 6, 15 and 21-24 are cancelled. Claims 1-5, 7-14, 16-20 and 25-32 are allowed.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Hill on 05/25/2010.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

In the claim:

Claim 1. (Currently Amended) A device-to-device authentication system for authenticating one or more devices on a local area network connectable to an external network via a router, the system comprising:

a storage unit configured to store a media access control address of a default gateway; and a local environment management unit configured to determine when a local area network of a first device and a local area network of a second device are the same local area network by comparing a source media access control address to the media access control address of the default gateway, wherein the first device comprises:

Art Unit: 2449

a unit configured to receive a request for access from the second device; a unit configured to permit the request when it is determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network; and a unit configured to refuse the request when it is not determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network.

Claim 7. (Currently Amended) A device-to-device authentication system for authenticating one or more devices on a local area network connectable to an external network via a router, the system comprising:

a storage unit configured to store identification information identifying a local area network of a first device and a local area network of a second device;
and

a unit configured to determine when the local area network of the first device and the local area network of the second device are the same local area network by comparing the identification information identifying the local area network of the first device to the identification information identifying the local area network of the second device, wherein the local area network of the first device and the local area network of the second device are determined to be the same local area network when the comparison determines the information identifying the local area network of the first device and the identification information indentifying the local area network ,of the second device are the same; wherein the first device comprises:

Art Unit: 2449

a unit configured to receive a request for permission to use a content from the second device;

a unit configured to permit the request when it is determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network; and a unit configured to refuse the request when it is not determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network.

Claim 10. (Currently Amended) A device-to-device authentication method for authenticating one or more devices on a local area network connectable to an external network via a router, the method comprising:

holding a media access control address of a default gateway; determining when a local area network of a first device and a local area network of a second device are the same local area network by comparing a source media access control address to the media access control address of the default gateway;

wherein the first device performs a method comprising:

receiving a request for access from the second device;

permitting the request when it is determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network; and

storing identification information identifying a local area network of a first device and a home network of a second device; determining when the local area network of the first device and the local area network of the second device are the same local area network by comparing the identification information identifying the local area network of the first device to the identification information identifying the local area network of the second device, wherein the local area network of the first device and the local area network of the second device are determined to be the same network when the comparison determines the information identifying the local area network of the first device and the identification information identifying the local area network of the second device are the same;

wherein the first device performs a method comprising:

receiving a request for permission to use a content from the second device;

permitting the request when it is determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network; and

Claim 28. (Currently amended) A computer-readable storage device medium, storing a computer program for causing a processor to execute a method for providing content to a first device on a local area network, the method comprising:

determining when the first device and a second device are both on the local area network by comparing a source media access control address to a media access control address of a default gateway;

receiving a request for access from the first device;

refusing the request when it is not determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network; and

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of the prior arts of record teach or suggest the claimed limitation determining when the first device and a second device are both on the local area network by comparing a source media access control address to a media access control address of a default gateway or a unit configured to determine when the local area network of the first device and the local area network of the second device are the same local area network by comparing the identification information identifying the local area network of the first device to the identification information identifying the local area network of the second device;

receiving a request for access from the first device;

permitting the request when it is determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network;

refusing the request when it is not determined that the first device and the second device are on the same local area network; and

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
